

Brand Panels:

Airline Services Interiors develops unique branded products to help communicate the brand identity of our airline customers in the cabin and to personalise the flying environment. We can manufacture brand panels in a variety of sizes and shapes for welcome areas, bulkheads, economy and premium class cabins, lavatories and galley areas. Airline Services Interiors has developed a variety of brand panel products for airlines such as Lufthansa, Eurowings, Aer Lingus and Thomas Cook Airlines. Our brand panels are designed and certified under EASA Part 21J European Parts Approval and manufactured in-house using our Part 21G Production facility.
